The Need of Religion in the Modern era

Lecture 3: 12+ girls

What is religion?

Definition: the belief in and worship of a superhuman controlling power, especially a personal God or gods.

Define Islam: the religion of the Muslims, a monotheistic faith regarded as revealed through Muhammad as the Prophet of Allah.

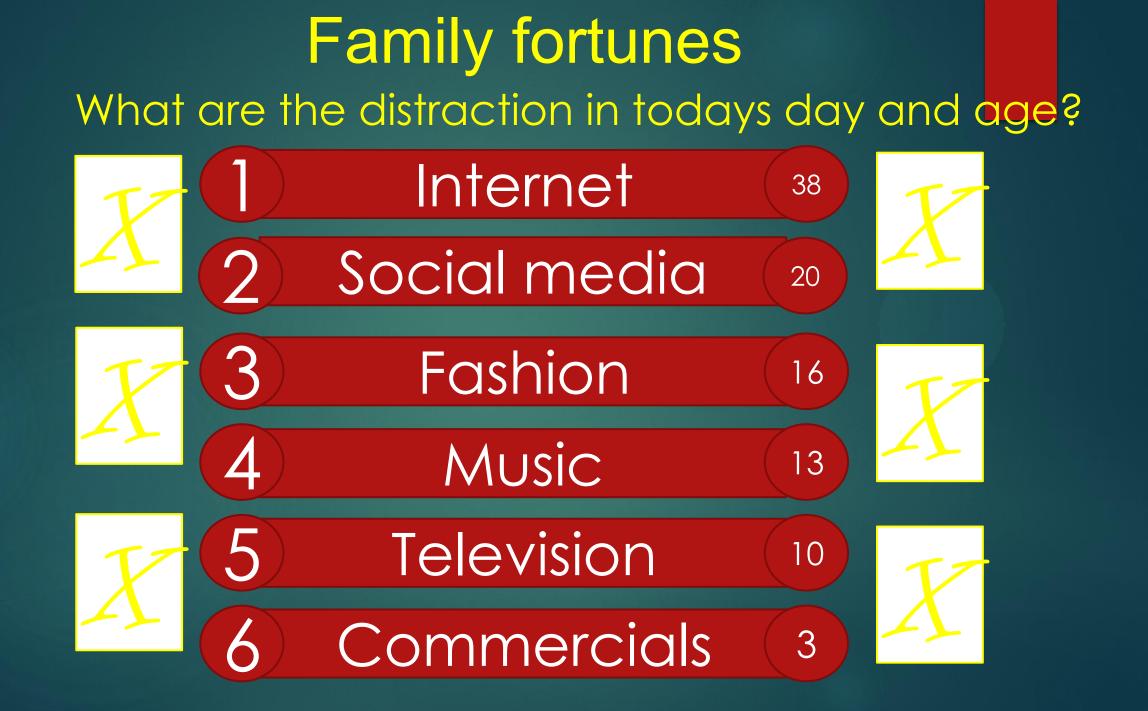

Define modern era?

- A period beginning in the last quarter of the 20th century when information became easily accessible through publications and through the manipulation of information by computers and computer networks.
- Economic change, social change, medical, the world is advancing and thriving.
- ▶ This began in England in late 19th century with the industrial revolution.
- Much of these advancement were identified in early Islam.

How has time changed?

- Lifestyle
- ► Thinking
- People
- Communities
- Clothing
- Technology
- Environment
- Society
- Culture

Choose one of the options and discuss in pairs or small groups.

How does religion fit in to this?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u2UDnt9mKTo

What does your religion mean to you?

Belonging to a religion is more then just using it as a title.

- I am muslim but I don't pray!
- I am muslim but I don't observe hijab
- I am muslim but I blame ALLAH for all my misfortunes
- I am muslim when I want something greater than the human power.
- I am muslim when I am at home (Infront of my parents).
- I am muslim and the last time I read the quran was in primary school.
- I am a muslim who only knows of the title and does not understand my roles and responsibilities towards such a beautiful religion.

What are some of the problems we face?

Our religion provides so many answers to our problems today?

Quick video to end

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7d16CpWp-ok